

Job advertisement

The Düsseldorf Institute for Competition Economics (DICE) of the Heinrich-Heine-University Düsseldorf is currently looking for student / research assistants who are interested in a long-term sideline job.

Your tasks:

- Research support, e.g. literature research, administrative support, or creating and processing data sets
- Teaching support, e.g. revising teaching materials and concepts especially in the context of digitization
- Other organizational support activities

Requirements:

- You are studying at the Heinrich Heine University, preferably with a focus on economics, and can prove a good academic record.
- You have sound language skills in German and English.
- You are interested in working at DICE and the corresponding research areas.
- You work independently and reliably within our team.
- Knowledge of data processing (e.g. Stata, R, Python, Excel) is desirable.

We offer:

- Hourly wages of currently 13,91 euros (without a bachelor's degree) or 14,98 euros (with a bachelor's degree)
- An employment of 7-8 hours per week
- Flexible working hours and spatial independence, as far as possible within the scope of the particular tasks
- Interesting and challenging activities with relevance to economic research projects and teaching

If you are interested, please apply via email (hiwi\_admin@hhu.de) with a CV and a current transcript of records. We are looking forward to receiving your application!
