Volkswirtschaftliches Seminar
Aline Mohr, M.Sc.

Heinrich Heine Universität Düsseldorf

WiSe 2026/27

BW37 - Seminar

Economic Aspects of Borders and Migration

This seminar addresses different aspects of migration and explores the topic in various contexts.

In this seminar, participants will work interactively on various papers related to the topic. For the module examination, a term paper (literature review) of approximately 12–15 pages must be written based on one of the assigned topics.

Language: English

Target group: Advanced students from the B.Sc. Economics/Business Administration or B.A. PPE.

Assessment: Participants will read the paper weekly, and will prepare a reading protocol (starting from 26.10). Every week, everyone is expected to contribute to the discussion. A maximum of 3 classes can be skipped. The reading material will be available on ILIAS.

Appointments:

- Monday 16:30-18:00, Weekly. Gebäude 24.21 / 2421.U1.84
- Start: 19.10. with an introduction and discussion of the first paper. From 26.10.2026, the reading protocol will be required.